

The MINI Cooper D Clubman.

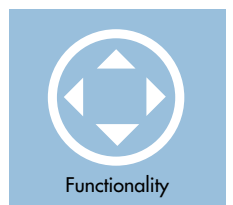

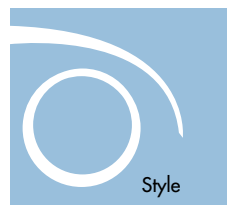

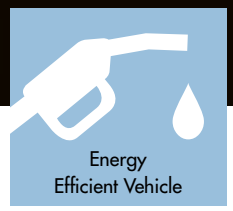

Functionality and individualisation to optimise your car fleet.

Self-confident design and functionality are yours with the MINI Cooper D Clubman. The five-door configuration and luggage compartment with a flexible volume of 260-930 litres let you decide how best to use the space.

Individualise the MINI Cooper D Clubman to your heart's content: both inside and out. Add your own unique touch to complement the innovative split-door design: proudly exhibit your affinity with self-confident, extroverted design.

High-quality standard equipment makes for a great driving experience – a great motivational tool. Safety is built-in: six airbags are par for the course. Measures to reduce fuel consumption (MINIMALISM) also come as standard, guaranteeing low fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions. The MINI Cooper D Clubman has an ASTX* rating of B. Know that you are doing your utmost for your staff and the environment.

Optimise your car fleet: combining functionality and efficiency, the MINI Cooper D Clubman is your flexible contribution towards a sustainable fleet management policy.

Why the MINI Cooper D Clubman is the perfect addition to your car fleet:

Measures to reduce fuel consumption (MINIMALISM) are fitted as standard across the range: a unique balance of high tech and low emissions	High-quality standard equipment, e.g. radio MINI CD, 6-speed transmission, DSC, enhanced legroom
Low running costs for its particular segment	High degree of interior and exterior customisation
Fulfils the strictest safety standards: six airbags come as standard, for example	With an EU average consumption of 4.1l/100km, the MINI Cooper D Clubman is the best in class in the area of CO ₂ emissions (109gr/km)
It represents a strong motivational tool for all staff

* The Alphabet Sustainability Index (ASTX) defines the sustainability level of a vehicle. ASTX takes into account the CO₂ emissions rate, the Clean Power Index and the Safety Vehicle Index. ASTX is certified by DEKRA Certification, an independent authority. For more information please have a look at www.alphabet.com.
